

Activity 25

Level: 2

Title: Andrew has It all wrong (2)

READING COMPREHENSION

Can you remember a situation where your teacher helped solve a problem that one of your classmates was having?

Can you think of a different title for this story?

Think of something you feel you'd probably tell your teacher about, if it were bothering or upsetting you?

What was Andrew upset about?

Does overcoming difficulties together help make a friendship stronger? Why, do you think?

How much attention should you pay to gossip and rumors? Why, do you think?

In what specific cases did Andrew feel bad?

When did Andrew start to feel good again?

Whom, do you think, is Miss Michaels thinking of calling, when she picks up the phone at the end of the story?